In accordance with the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 as amended and extended by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2019, this disclosure is part of your policy.

POLICYHOLDER DISCLOSURE NOTICE OF TERRORISM INSURANCE COVERAGE

Coverage for acts of terrorism is not excluded from your policy. However your policy does contain other exclusions which may be applicable, such as an exclusion for nuclear hazard. You are hereby notified that the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended in 2019, defines an act of terrorism in Section 102(1) of the Act. The term “act of terrorism” means any act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury—in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Attorney General of the United States—to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. Under this policy, any covered losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government under a formula established by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended. Under the formula, the United States Government generally reimburses 80% beginning on January 1, 2020 of covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, contains a $100 billion cap that limits U.S. Government reimbursement as well as insurers’ liability for losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism when the amount of such losses exceeds $100 billion in any one calendar year. If the aggregate insured losses for all insurers exceed $100 billion, your coverage may be reduced.

There is no separate premium charged to cover insured losses caused by terrorism. Your insurance policy establishes the coverage that exists for insured losses. This notice does not expand coverage beyond that described in your policy.

THIS IS YOUR NOTIFICATION THAT UNDER THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT, AS AMENDED, ANY LOSSES RESULTING FROM CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM UNDER YOUR POLICY MAY BE PARTIALLY REIMBURSED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND MAY BE SUBJECT TO A $100 BILLION CAP THAT MAY REDUCE YOUR COVERAGE.

This summary is not a replacement for the terms of the policy of insurance, shall not have the effect of altering the coverage afforded by the policy, and shall not confer new or additional rights beyond those expressly provided for in the policy. This information is only provided as guidance to the policyholder in understanding the terms of the policy of insurance. You should consult your policy, agent and insurer if you have questions about your particular coverage.

Commercial property insurance generally provides coverage to the policyholder for direct physical loss of or damage to their building and contents due to a covered cause of loss. Many insurers' commercial property policies include business income coverage (also referred to as business interruption coverage) either as a coverage within the primary policy form itself or as an additional coverage provided by endorsement.

Business income coverage generally provides for the net income that would have been earned by the insured plus normal operating expenses incurred that continue despite the suspension of operations. The coverage is provided only during the period of restoration, the period from when the physical loss or damage occurs until the time the property is repaired, and the location is ready for normal operations to resume.

Most business interruption insurance policies cover losses sustained due to a suspension of business where the suspension was caused by direct physical loss of or damage to property or the insured's premises, and where the loss or damage is caused by or results from a specified peril or covered cause of loss. For such policies, a government ordered shutdown may not trigger business interruption insurance coverage in the absence of physical damage to the insured property.

Perils Typically Covered

Property insurance coverage is evaluated, in part, based on what specifically caused the physical loss or damage. Some policies identify the specific perils (types of incidents that could cause damage) that are covered such as fire, wind, and vandalism. However, many policies are written on an "open peril" or "all risk" basis, meaning a covered cause of loss is anything that is not otherwise excluded from the insurance policy contract.

Your policy may not cover pandemics or viruses. Viruses and infectious diseases are generally excluded as covered causes of loss in business income coverage.

Common Exclusions

The most common types of perils (causes of loss) excluded from property insurance policies include flood, earthquake, war, wear and tear, pollution, and virus or bacteria.

Common Coverage Triggers

Commercial property insurance policies, including the business income coverage component, typically require direct physical loss or damage to tangible property in order to trigger coverage.

Other Common Coverages

Civil Authority Coverage provides coverage for business income losses when a civil authority prohibits access to the policyholder's premises. Civil Authority coverage requires that the restriction to the business be a result of a direct physical loss insured against in the policy. Civil Authority coverage is usually provided for a limited time, such as 30 days, and is typically subject to a waiting period.

Contingent Business Interruption Coverage provides coverage for a policyholder's business income losses resulting from loss or damage to property owned by others, such as suppliers of goods and services, as long as the cause of damage to the supplier or customer's premises is of the type covered by the insured's own property policy.

Important Information on How Your Contractor General Liability Premium is Determined and the Audit Process

When your policy was issued, the liability portion of the premium was based on an estimate of your business operations and your workers' payroll.

At the end of the policy period, an audit will be performed to determine your actual payroll and business operations. We will be able to calculate the final premium from this information.

The Audit Process

A review of your financial records, such as payroll logs, general ledgers and tax returns will be required. A State Farm® representative will contact you by mail, telephone, or visit with you in person to obtain the information. It is to your benefit to have your accounting records set up by employee and type of work they perform. We will also obtain a complete description of your business operations to confirm the classifications on your policy are correct.

We will assign the payroll to the classification codes that represent the type of work performed and apply any credits, debits or discounts to determine your final premium. The final audit premium will be compared to the estimated premium and a Premium Adjustment Statement will be sent to you reflecting any change. Please note that a significant change may require that we also adjust your current policy premium.

Items That Affect Your Premium

- Sole Proprietor/Partner/Officer – In most instances, a predetermined amount will be used for each sole proprietor/partner/officer regardless of their actual remuneration.
- Employees/Temporary Employees/Leased Employees – Actual remuneration paid to each employee, temporary employee and/or leased employee. If temporary or leased employee's remuneration cannot be determined from your records, then 100% of the total contract cost will be used as the remuneration for these employees, regardless of the temporary or leasing company's insurance arrangements.
 - Remuneration means all payroll and other forms of earnings such as bonuses, commissions, sick days, meals and lodging.
- Use of Subcontractors – Certificates of liability insurance need to be obtained annually for every subcontractor you hire so that proper classification of job costs can be made. If they are not obtained, the subcontractor and their employees will be considered as your employees for premium calculation. This could substantially increase your final premium.
- Business Operations – The actual remuneration will be assigned to class codes in accordance with industry rules as published by the Insurance Services Office – Premium Audit Advisory Service and applicable State Farm filings.

All audit information provided will be kept confidential.

If you have any questions concerning this information, please contact your State Farm agent.

*The information contained in this document outlines general concepts.
Information required may vary by state and could be impacted by state law.*

The following notice is being provided to you in accordance with New Jersey law:

New Jersey Earthquake Insurance Availability Notice

All insureds and applicants are cautioned that State Farm® homeowners (tenant and non-tenant including manufactured homes) and commercial fire insurance policies do not provide coverage for earthquake damage.

The definition of an earthquake:

- is a shaking or trembling of the earth that is geologic or tectonic in nature;
- includes shock waves or tremors before, during or after a volcanic eruption; and
- can also include after-shocks that occur within a seventy-two hour period following an earthquake.

A typical homeowners or commercial fire insurance policy:

- does not cover the cost to replace or repair your damaged dwelling, premises or structures, such as garages, resulting from an earthquake;
- does not cover the cost to replace or repair the contents of your home or business if the damages result from an earthquake; and
- does not pay for any additional living or business expenses if your property is badly damaged or destroyed by an earthquake.

Earthquake insurance is available through an endorsement to your policy for an additional premium. The decision to purchase earthquake insurance is one that should be carefully considered based on individual circumstances.

Historically, an earthquake in New Jersey is a rare event, although the possibility exists that it could happen. Over the five-year period from 2010 to 2015, for every $1 of earthquake insurance premium, 1/10 of one cent has been paid out for losses.

Please contact your State Farm agent if you have any questions or want additional information on how you can obtain earthquake insurance.

This notice is a general description of coverage and does not change, modify or invalidate any of the provisions, terms or conditions of your policy or endorsements.

Premium Surcharge

Companies writing property and casualty insurance business in New Jersey are required to participate in the New Jersey Property — Liability Insurance Guaranty Association. If an insurance company becomes insolvent, the Guaranty Association is required by law to settle unpaid claims and assess each insurance company for its proportionate share. New Jersey law also allows all companies to surcharge policies to recover these assessments. If your policy is surcharged, an amount will be displayed on your renewal notice as “NJ Surcharge.”

IMPORTANT NOTICE . . . Data Compromise Coverage Now Available

Nearly all businesses collect and retain personal information about their clients, employees and business associates. Yet many businesses lack the resources to respond effectively in the event this data is stolen or released when it is in their care, custody or control.

If a data breach occurs, a business may be required to notify all parties who were affected by the breach, effectively communicate the nature of the loss or disclosure and, if warranted, provide credit monitoring assistance and identity restoration case management service to those affected. Many states already require businesses to provide these services.

Data Compromise coverage may help a business respond to the expense of service obligations following a covered data breach.

Coverage Summary

Data Compromise coverage is designed to help a business investigate a data breach, notify individuals and provide credit monitoring, case management and other services that help prevent identity theft and fraud following a covered breach of non-public personal information. Data Compromise coverage may be available for certain necessary and reasonable expenses including:

- Legal and forensic information technology reviews;
- Notification to affected individuals; and
- Service to affected individuals including:
 - Informational materials;
 - Toll-free help line;
 - Credit report monitoring; and
 - Identity restoration case management.

If you choose to purchase Data Compromise coverage, Identity Restoration coverage will be included for your business.

No one can predict if a covered data breach will occur, but you are able to protect your business from certain response costs a breach may create. If you are interested in adding Data Compromise coverage to your policy, contact your State Farm® agent to see if your business qualifies.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Information regarding liability limits

Effective November 3, 2022, New Jersey Senate Bill 1368 requires business owners and owners of rental units to maintain certain liability insurance limits based on the type of rental.

- The owner of a multifamily home – which is four or fewer units, one of which is owner-occupied – shall maintain liability insurance for negligent acts and omissions in an amount of no less than $300,000 for combined property damage and bodily injury to or death of one or more persons in any one accident or occurrence.
- The owner of a business or the owner of a rental unit or units shall maintain liability insurance for negligent acts and omissions in an amount of no less than $500,000 for combined property damage and bodily injury to or death of one or more persons in any one accident or occurrence.

Policyholders are responsible for requesting policy limits that meet their needs. If you need to make changes to your liability limits or have any questions about your insurance coverage, please contact your State Farm® agent.
